THE HON. W. D. ROBINSON'S TRIP TO ALABAMA.

The day before his departure for Camden, Ala., to attend the recent meeting of the A. R. P. Synod, our young friend Mr. W. Pressly Robinson, of the Lancaster bar, declined to take a certain law case because his acceptance would have necessitated his giving up his trip to Alabama. We suspected at the time that there was a magnet of some kind drawing the young man to Camden, and that suspicion has been confirmed by the following, taken from the Associate Reformed Presbyterian of this week: "Mr. W. P. Robinson of Lancaster attended the meeting of Synod and was the guest of his brother, Rev. R. L. Robinson. He seemed to have some special attractions at Camden. Some of his brethren accused him of talking in his sleep. Mr. Robinson was much pleased with the meeting of Synod. He is a rising young lawyer at the Lancaster bar and has just been elected to the Legislature."

TALLEST MAN AT BAPTIST CONVENTION.

The Spartanburg Herald, in alluding to the Baptist Convention session in that city, says: "The tallest man in the convention by odds is the Rev. John H. Bolden, of Orangeburg, but the least of his claims to eminence, Mr. Brunson is a decided intellectual brill and a preacher and writer of power." "Temporary must have been Dr. John H. Bolden, otherwise we would conclude that the Brunson is indeed a skyscraper order. He is not only rich in his altitude, but, Brunson, he is a man of intellectuality and a writer of power."

A Dayton, Ohio, daily paper contains the following advertisement: "Wanted—30 girls to pick chickens." Gee, wouldn't you like to see a whole batch of peek-a-boo beauties pickin' pullets! Wouldn't they make the feathers fly!

The gentleman who at a banquet some days ago facetiously introduced President Spencer, of the Southern railway, as the late Samuel Spencer, because he rode on his own trains. Little thought that his words were soon to become literally true.

Senator Bailey, of Texas, and Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, both recognized as national democratic leaders, widely differ in their views as to President Roosevelt's course in dismissing the three companies of negro soldiers of the 25th regiment of infantry. Senator Bailey endorses the President's action, while Senator Tillman holds that he transcended his authority, and that he "punished innocent men for the crime of a few." Another case of where doctors differ.

Solicitor Henry has established a precedent which is calculated to make jury service more popular hereafter. During his argument in the case of a Yorkville druggist charged with violating the dispensary law, recently tried in Yorkville, as published in The News at the time, the Solicitor "treated" the jury, according to the following, taken from the New Era: "Solicitor Henry said the 'proof of the pudding' was in the eating," and he proposed to let the jury chew the bag. He then passed around a bottle of malt, bought at the York drug store, and asked each juror to taste it. Then a bottle of bitters. He thought it was a pretty good brand of rye whiskey."

In remitting for his subscription to The News this week, Mr. W. D. Ussery, of the Kershaw section, one of the best and most substantial citizens of the county, writes as follows: "The News gets better and better, especially the editorials. Mix a little more spice and the flavoring will be complete. Long live The News!" In this connection, we also take the liberty of quoting from a private letter received from a brother editor, Dr. Gardner, of the Greenwood Journal, who is recognized as one of the ablest writers in the state: "Well, you are a great fellow, anyway, and I enjoy The News more than any of my exchanges. Your wit is spice and life." Our friends flatter us, of course, but it is sincere flattery and we appreciate their kind and generous words just as much as though we deserved them.

President May Reinstate Discharged Negro Soldiers.

Washington, Nov. 29.—President Roosevelt holds that he has the power to reinstate in the army any of the members of the three companies of the Twenty-Fifth Regiment of colored infantry who were discharged without honor as a result of the trouble at Brownsville, Tex., some time ago, if the circumstances of any individual case justify such action. Whether he will avail himself of that power according to such evidence that may be presented to him in the case of any one or more soldiers which will tend to clearly exculpate them from any participation in the incident.

Both Preaching and Teaching.

Waxhaw Enterprise: Rev. W. F. Estridge, pastor of King Street Baptist church, has accepted the Camp Creek school just over in Lancaster county. He opened school there last Monday morning. As the term will last only a few months, it is understood that his family will remain here, and his school will not in any way interfere with his pastoral work further than that he will not have so much time at his disposal for pastoral visiting during the term of his school.

England Watching Development of "Southern Cotton Company."

London, Nov. 28.—In the house of commons today, replying to a question as to what steps the government intended to take in order to checkmate the "trust scheme under the Southern Cotton company," the president of the board of trade, Mr. Lloyd-George, said he had seen reports that a scheme was being organized in the United States to regulate the price of cotton by means of storage and gradual sale. The developments of course, would be carefully watched, but the board of trade did not understand that the Lancaster cotton trade at present was greatly alarmed.
